CURATED PHOTOGRAPHS

SELECTED FROM THE SCP/BULB FB AND IG STREAMS

5 years ago I was writing in the Anti-Manual of Street Photography:

Bresson said that "il faut signifier le monde" which translates into "reveal the world, uncover it, give it a meaning". I would take this further by stating that photography is there to give the photographer's life a meaning instead, and nothing else. This last axiomatic statement may appear so close to the Plato's "aphorism" that art has no value for us since the works of art are simply a mere mirroring of reality. And this becomes even more plausible when we refer to photography, a mechanical process.

I really need to review the above in the light of Artificial Intelligence hype. Plato himself would have reconsidered and run a chatGPT session before emitting any 'new' thoughts. New and original work is the only chance for art to overcome the masterful recycling of knowledge operated by AI.

Have a great and creative summer!

THE ANTI - WORKSHOP of STREET PHOTOGRAPHY

BULB

PHOS

FREE
5TH MAY
IN BUCHAREST

Under the guidance of SCP, BULB and PHOS a new workshop saw the light where you don't hear about shadows, reflections, kids, animals, how to wait, how to hunt, how to shoot from the back, from the top, from the hip. Not a word about buses, trains, homeless, anecdotes, contre-jour or blur. You don't even hear about great photographers or the history of photography ... no definitions, bibliography or conclusions. For a good and noble reason! You can find all the above on the Internet. Even better: you don't need it.

During May 2023, our editor Mihai Marcolt prepared and held the first of the Balkan series of this workshop.
